Poplar

Character

A very stable wood used extensively in architectural woodwork, which is to be painted or enameled. Modest figure and even texture permit staining to simulate more expensive woods such as Walnut.

Color

Yellowish to creamy white, to a pale straw colored heartwood, often with greenish cast or dark mineral streaks.

We offer Poplar in the following sizes:

Size 4/4 | Size 5/4 | Size 6/4 | Size 8/4 | Size 10/4 | Size 12/4

African Mahogany

Character

Grain is straight to interlocked, with a medium to coarse texture. Good natural luster and a high degree of chatoyancy.

Color

Heartwood ranges from pale pink to a deeper reddish brown, sometimes with streaks of medium to dark reddish brown. Colors darken with age. Quartersawn surfaces exhibit a ribbon-stripe appearance.

We offer African Mahogany in the following sizes:

Size 4/4 | Size 5/4 | Size 6/4 | Size 8/4

Alder

Character

Alder is the most abundant hardwood in the Pacific Northwest region of the United States, and is a commercially important lumber

Color

Alder tends to be a light tan to reddish brown; color darkens and reddens with age. There is no visible distinction between heartwood and sapwood.

We offer Alder in the following sizes:

Size 4/4 | Size 5/4 | Size 6/4 | Size 8/4 | Size 10/4

Cherry

Character

One of our most beautiful hardwoods, readily available in both lumber and veneers.

Color

Sapwood is a creamy-pink color, clearly distinguishable from the reddish-brown heartwood. Occasional gum spots and streaks are allowed.

We offer Cherry in the following sizes:

Size 4/4 | Size 5/4 | Size 6/4 | Size 8/4 | Size 10/4 | Size 12/4

Teak

Character

One of the most desirable lumbers in the world due to its strength, stability, and easy workability

Color

Heartwood tends to be a golden or medium brown, with color darkening with age.

We offer Teak in the following sizes:

Size 4/4 | Size 5/4 | Size 6/4 | Size 8/4

Torem

Character

South Pacific Redwood, aka Torem or Manilkara, is a high density and naturally durable material perfect for exterior decking. It's a beautiful species of wood that's naturally durable and has a stunning red color.

Color

Typically exhibits a beautiful reddish-brown to brown color. The reddish-brown hue can darken with age, and it may also display highlights, grain lines, and secondary colors ranging from brick red to a more muted purplish hue.

We offer Torem in the following sizes:

Size 3/4 | Size 4/4 | Size 5/8

Accoya

Character

Accoya Wood is a high-performance, sustainable wood product renowned for its durability, stability, and versatility

Color

Freshly milled Accoya wood has a light blond to pale yellow or cream color, similar to pine or spruce. Its tone is consistent and subtle, with a clean, neutral appearance that accepts stains and finishes exceptionally well.
